that day ...

Sure, Pretty Lady ... Blushing
Bride with Bells on ... They'll be there ... All those wonderful friends of your youth ... A slight touch of envy on their happy faces ... Oh, you won't notice them much, maybe ... Not for this moment ... This Supreme Happiness ... But they'll be there ... Because it's YOUR wedding ... And they love you ... How can they help it?
And, after all, you invited them ... or maybe your mother did, or maybe Aunt Lucy did ... Who cares? ... Not now ... Not today ... But some day when all else of 1950 has become musty history ... Some day, when only the BEST things are left and 1950 can be out of the calendar for all you care except this wonderful day was in it ... Then in a blue ribbon in an old trunk, you'll find it ... The invitation to your wedding ...
And then you'll reflect on how nice it is ... Because The Anvil Herald made it ... For YOU

WEIRDEST SOFTBALL NIGHT?

33 Draw Walks In Opener; Nelson Hurls No-Hit Game

In perhaps the weirdest night of softball ever witnessed in Hondo, two records for the year and one for all time fell Friday night as Yancey beat the Flying Horses 15-13, and Sinclair shut-out the American Legion 7-0.

The opener saw 33 bases on balls issued to members of the Harvester and Horses teams, while the nightcap was a distinct contrast with the first no hit, no run game of the season, pitched by Sinclair's Alan Nelson. A new record for the year was made in the 28 total runs in the first game, topping the 26 runs scored in the Horses-Sinclair game earlier in the season.

The plate was hard to find as three Horses pitchers, Noisy Ahr, Glen Wernette and Calvin Schott, passed out 21 walks to the Yancey boys. Johnny Faselier issued 12 free passes.

The Horses took a six run lead the first time they batted, but Yancey came back to stay in the game with four in their half of the first. Six more runs in the second moved the Harvesters out front, although the Horses tied it with three in the third and one in the fourth. Yancey got a pair of unearned runs in the last of the fourth to regain the lead and were never behind again.

Alan Nelson hurled an almost perfect game in holding the Legion without hits or runs. He gave up only four walks while his mates committed one error as he faced only 26 batters. Nelson struck out eight, and only one man got as far as third base.

The Oilers backed up their pitcher with a 2-0 lead in the

Jaycees, Chapman Win With 7th Inning Rallies

Story-book finishes were the fashion Wednesday night as the Jaycees and Chapman Mill and Grain pulled last of the seventh rallies to beat the Flying Horses and Yancey Harvesters. A single by O. C. Marquis brought home the winning run to give the Jaycees a 9-8 win, while Walter Nester's single brought home Kile with the margin as Chapman defeated Yancey 5-4.

Make-up of rained out games Monday night saw Sinclair take the Jaycees 7-1, and Yancey won over D'Hanis by a 5-1 score.

The Jaycees had to come from behind three times as Clarence Bohlen's three home runs kept the Horses in the game until the very end. Three errors kept the Jaycee hopes alive in the sixth as five runs came in, two on McNiel's homer. Bohlen's third four-bagger moved the Horses into the lead in the seventh, but a pair of walks, Meyer's double and Marquis' single turned the tide.

Chapman led Yancey all the way only to have the Harvesters tie the score when Hartman walked in Willard Wilson and Elmer Faselier's single scored Albert Wilson. Chapman came back in the bottom of the inning with one away with three hits to win, even after Weynand was out on a close play at the plate.

Sinclair had little trouble Monday in downing the Jaycees as they jumped to an early lead and held on behind good hurling by Nelson. Johnny Faselier pitched one-hit ball to give his Yancey team their 5-1 victory.

The two contests Wednesday saw Myles Weynand take over the batting lead from Craig Wilson .500 to .486, and Bohlen's home runs moved him into the lead in that department with five.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

For 20 years I have been a booster for the Highway 90 League, and have tried to "keep up" with them through The Anvil Herald and friends. Wish to submit this "All-Time, All-Star" team, composed of players with whom I have played against or seen play.

There are lots of players that I have not seen that are perhaps superior to my team, and it's no reflection as to their ability that I did not name them. Would like to see someone else pick a team that has been in closer contact with the players of more recent years.

Catchers: Amos "Smoot" Finger, D'Hanis, and Chancey King, Hondo. Pitchers: "Duke" Thornberry, Sabinal, Teddy Reitzer, Hondo, and Tommy Finger, D'Hanis. First base: Al Hollmig, Hondo. Second base: Possie Parsons, Hondo. Third base: Grell, Hondo. Shortstop: M. Koch, D'Hanis. Fielders: Zerr, D'Hanis, Otis Buttler, Sabinal, and Stan Hollmig, Hondo. Sub-infielders: Clark Tondre, Castroville, and August Finger, Hondo. Sub-outfielders: John Finger, Hondo, and Paulie Mueller, Hondo.

Sincerely,
Miller Stewart,
Houston, Texas

THAT SUPREME COURT DECISION

And the expected happened!

The Supreme Court held against the rights of the states in both the Segregation and the Tide Lands decisions.

Knowing the personnel of the Justices and their political background, their present political affiliations, and the inordinate ambition of the average politician to be a leader in whatever seems the popular trend of the time and occasion, it would have been simple-mindedness to have expected anything else.

You can not take human frailties out of the wisest and best intentioned of judges.

If you could take the sense of political expediency out of a politician he would not be a politician.

So, the to-be-expected has happened again!

The court has again emphasized the well justified and the well founded fears of the founding fathers of the dangers inherent in a too strong central government.

Again has the reserved rights of the states and the sacred right of their people to their own form and manner of life been violated and flouted!

This time by the very tribunal designed to shield them!

In the matter of the tide-lands decision, not only has the court done violence to the rights of the states but, in relation to Texas in this matter, it has wantonly broken the agreement with the state, under which Texas entered the Union of the states, to rob her of a source of inestimable wealth — a wealth already dedicated by the state to the education of the present and future generations of its children.

Does the court vouchsafe to these children or their state any compensation by an exchange of something of equal value for what it proceeds to take?

None whatever!

In every effect it amounts to confiscation!

Can you find in the pages of history a more highhanded procedure at the hands of any power-mad dictator?

In its segregation decision the court has rendered both the whites and blacks a lamentable disservice.

In the language of Governor Wright of Mississippi, paraphrased from memory, the South, since reconstruction days, has afforded the outstanding example in history of two peoples of marked racial distinctions living so long so amicably together.

This amicable achievement was not reached save through a travail of blood and tears.

It has proven by experience the best manner of life for both races.

It can not be arbitrarily disturbed without again courting danger for both races!

Despite efforts of would-be apologists and wishful thinkers to minimize the fearful import of that decision, it does those two very things — arbitrarily seeks to change the manner of life of a vast body of people and invites the evils of dissension!

Governor Talmadge of Georgia, yielding to the urge that surged into the breast of every Caucasian with a decent pride in his race at this ruling of the court, met it with the defy that so long as he was governor no Georgia negro would enter a "white" school in Georgia.

While in sympathy with the impulse that prompted this outburst, we fear the valiant Governor had not grasped the full import of the court's ruling.

If we have grasped it in all its horrid imports, Georgia no longer has, in the judgment of the court, either a white or a colored school.

They are a mongrelized amalgamation of both races — done by action of the court!

And whether or not it was the intended purpose of that august tribunal or whether they lacked foresight or perspicacity to visualize the full import of their action, it will have the effect, the same as if intended, of hastening the process of amalgamation of the races.

We hate to think of any one so unworthy of his heritage of Caucasian integrity as to be partner, purposely or ignorantly, to promoting such an amalgamation.

Alas! however, there have been too many sunken that low! In fact, it is rather that such agencies and such actions as that we are here discussing would not be to remind us of the efforts of reconstructionists to form a glorified Haiti of the South, following the civil war.

As a case in point, there was an influx of Northern white women into Mississippi, if not other states, who came for the avowed purpose of teaching the recently liberated slaves; they soon found mates among the more forward of the colored race.

With the upsurge of White supremacy they soon betook themselves, their spouses and their offspring — an offspring that could neither boast a pure Caucasian nor Ethiopian lineage — back whence they had come.

It is a biological fact — humiliating as it is to accept it — that dissimilar races, long enough associated will eventually amalgamate to the detriment of both races.

But why hasten this curse upon our posterity?

This action of the court — if acquiesced in to any considerable degree of its possibilities — will hasten this denouement in America by several centuries.

And in only too few short centuries, the anthropologist, like Shakespeare's Hamlet over the skull of Yorick, when he kicks over the skull of one of our Supreme Court Judge's, can truthfully soliloquize:

"Here is the pate of a politician — one that could circumvent God."

"For did not God create both the Caucasian and the Ethiopian, each after his own kind?"

"And has not the politician taken the two and made the American a Mongrel?"

Fighting Communism---Together

Suppose a great army were engaged in a campaign of maneuver against a powerful and merciless foe. Suppose the high command of that army were challenged to the utmost to apply quickly and vigorously all of the basic precepts of good generalship — to reinforce those fronts against which the enemy brings his greatest strength; to support the forces of loyal allies; to demonstrate to the hard pressed that there are alternatives to joining the foe; to keep morale high throughout the ranks.

Suppose at a critical moment a group within that army who had favored another plan of campaign suddenly started shouting that there must be a spy or two somewhere at general headquarters, that they were sure a few dozen lieutenants and sergeants here and there had listened too sympathetically to enemy propaganda.

What would that high command do? Those generals in command would not ignore these charges. But they would turn over the accusations and the information to their intelligence officers and their military police. They would hardly be diverted from the all-important task of checkmating the real power moves of the enemy and of building up the arms, the supplies, and the unity of their own forces. They would not turn their divisions from the hostile millions they face to some panicky hunt for a few petty conspirators behind their lines.

The so-called "cold war" is essentially just such a campaign of maneuver. The United States finds itself today facing just such a situation. And a retired five star general and a former captain of artillery (who for the time outranks the general), speaking on the same day but on different topics and to different audiences, both brought the positive approach, the philosophy of the offensive, to their counsel for waging that campaign.

Said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to the convention of the Associated Press: We must gain the conviction that we are right in that we act from motives of basic human decency; we must understand what we are working for and pursue that objective "persistently and invariably until victory is achieved"; in so doing we must never forget that each of our freedoms "is essential to the existence of all the others."

Said President Harry S. Truman to the Federal Bar Association: We shall fight Russian Communism on the march, first, by strengthening our own military defenses and reinforcing those of other free nations; second, by working at home to strengthen our own democratic system; third, by moving quietly, without hysteria against Communist subversion — and to do this within the frame work of our liberties.

"We are not going to turn the United States into a right-wing totalitarian country," said the President, "in order to deal with a left-wing totalitarian threat."

Here, voiced by two American leaders, is an essentially American doctrine: That safety lies in strength — the strength of mutual confidence, the strength of free men marching forward together.

P. M. A. Extends Storage Loans

The Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that loans to farmers to finance the construction or purchase of suitable farm storage facilities for grain and certain other storable crops will be available through June 30, 1951, according to the P. M. A. Newsletter for June.

Under the original program, announced by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan on June 7, 1949, loans were to be available only through June 30, 1950.

The farm storage facility loan program is open to producers of wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, grain sorghums, soybeans, dry edible beans and peas, rice, peanuts, cottonseed, and flax. Through this program, the Commodity Credit Corporation makes loans to farmers for the purchase or construction of farm storage facilities in an amount not to exceed 85 per cent of the cost of the structure. These loans will bear interest at the rate of a 4 per cent per year.

The first installment on loan applications approved prior to July 1, 1950, will become due and payable January 31, 1951. On loan applications approved during the period July 1, 1950 - June 30, 1951, the first installment will become due and payable January 31, 1952.

Shivers Wants 'Term Of Own'

Gov. Allan Shivers, in formally announcing his candidacy for a first elective term as Governor, said he has done his best to carry out a program for Texas in a manner acceptable to the people of Texas, adding:

"If I have succeeded, I will appreciate their votes for a term of my own."

Shivers, who assumed the Governorship last July, had not held a full-time governmental job before becoming Governor. He was elected to the State Senate in 1934 and twice re-elected. In 1946 he was elected Lieutenant Governor and re-elected to that office in 1948. Born in Lufkin, he spent his boyhood in Tyler County and later moved with his family to Port Arthur.

During his public career Shivers has given particular attention to public welfare, rural roads and improved educational facilities. He was a co-author of Texas' original old-age assistance law and helped to write the tax bill which still meets the cost of old-age assistance. Under his leadership last February, the Legislature approved a far-reaching reform and improvement program for state hospitals.

"Between now and the July 22 election I will continue to make known my views on important public issues," Governor Shivers stated. "I will emphasize facts and record of accomplishment, instead of easy promises, and will address myself to all the people of Texas rather than to any special group."

The Governor said he considers economy to be the State's top problem. "And that means economy of money, of our soil and of our water resources," he added.

He expressed thanks to "the thousands of individual Texans who have already told me that they will support me in this election."

YOUR HEALTH

By George W. Cox,
State Health Officer

It is a 50-50 bet that you have some sort of ringworm infection. Check to see. Chances are it will be in your scalp hair, on your groin, or on your feet — either on the soles or between the toes. If you don't find it, you're lucky, because while it isn't serious, its itching and persistence is very annoying.

A fungus — the same one that causes food to mold — causes ringworm. It's one of the world's most common ailments, with authorities estimating that half of the world's population is affected. It is more common this time of year than any other.

Animals get it too. As a matter of fact, cats, dogs, rabbits, mice, and fowls are frequently the source of infection in man. A child plays with an infected dog, the dog's hair brushes the child, and the child stands an excellent chance of ringworm infection.

The scales which are formed can cause new infection on the body, so an infected person has to be careful to keep it from spreading. Advanced cases exude a clear, runny fluid — it "weeps," as doctors say, and the fluid can cause breaking out on whatever part of the body it touches. Children are especially vulnerable to scalp ringworm. Epidemics are usually started in schools or institutions.

Swimming pools, locker rooms, and gyms are potent sources of infection. Everyone has heard of "athlete's foot." It is nothing more than a type of ringworm. So is the so-called "barber's itch."

Preventive measures call for avoiding persons and animals known to be infected. Swimming pools, gyms, locker rooms, and the like can do their part toward ringworm control by boiling towels, swimming suits and their other public facilities for 30 minutes. Foot baths are also worthwhile.

The best thing to do is to keep clean at all times. But if you happen to get ringworm, or if you have it now, it will be better for all concerned if you report to your family doctor immediately. He'll recommend medication designed to shorten the course and lessen the severity of the infection.

Sparks

One of the latest proposals to be offered by the Chamber of Commerce is further evidence that Hondo is growing up, and that it is now in the "small city" rather than in the "town" category.

The Chamber's petition asks the post office department to begin city mail delivery here, which would mean that mail would be taken by a carrier directly to the homes or businesses if the people wanted it delivered in that fashion.

A word of clarification comes from Postmaster Harry E. Filleman to those persons who oppose the plan on grounds that they would rather get their mail at the post office. The postmaster says that mail be delivered as it is addressed. For instance, mail bearing the address "Box 318" would be put up at the post office; that addressed "1608 Ave. K." would be delivered by carrier. In other words, it is up to the individual to decide where his mail is to go.

The city will have some work to do, however, before the post office department approves the proposal, if and when. Sidewalks would have to be built in a good many places, house numbers put up where they are lacking, and quite a few street markers repaired. In other places where mail delivery was asked, approval was held up until these specifications were met.

While very few people have refused to sign the petition, there has been no great deluge of persons anxious to affix their names on it. Approval by postal authorities will be based to a great extent on the send-off the idea gets here. If the anticipated 400-600 signatures are not received, chances of having mail delivered house-to-house will be greatly reduced.

Persons may sign the petition at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Secret Well Kept

ONE OF THE most carefully guarded secrets of the war was the fact that Japan was floating balloons across the Pacific ocean to Oregon, Washington and even as far east as Illinois and Texas.

U. S. Censors gave strict orders to suppress all news of these balloons; and even when an Oregon family climbed into a tree to examine a balloon and was blown to bits, censors suppressed the information.

Reason for the strict censorship was that American commanders didn't want the Japs to know how successful their balloon campaign was. If the Japs realized their balloons were getting across, it was believed they would launch many more thousands.

After the war ended, cross-examination of the Jap military revealed that 60,000 of these balloons had been launched from the Kurile islands and Formosa. They crossed the Pacific at an altitude of about 17,000 feet at a speed of over 100 miles an hour and were equipped with gadgets which made them descend after a certain distance. The prevailing winds across the Pacific made the flight relatively simple—despite the fact that the Pacific is the widest of all oceans.

The balloons were equipped as incendiary carriers to set fire to northwest forests, and later they were to be equipped as carriers of bacteriological warfare.

Balloons to Russia

Use of these same type balloons to carry propaganda into Russia was proposed in this column two years ago. The wind currents from Germany, France, Austria, Turkey or even England make it easy to float balloons into Russia. In fact, they could be inflated so as to come down in certain planned areas, carrying not only propaganda, but bars of soap, candy, shortwave radio sets, etc.

The weather bureau, with whom I conferred at the time, confirmed the fact that floating the balloons into Russia would be fairly easy. Secretary of Air Symington and Chief of Staff Omar Bradley gave their enthusiastic approval. But at that time the state department said no.

However, with increasing Soviet jamming of the Voice of America, and with the increasing urgency of getting American ideas across to the Russian people, the state department under live-wire assistant Secretary Ed Barrett is re-examining the matter. A sincere effort is being made to put across the Acheson idea of "Total Diplomacy."

A Candidate Forgets

Willis Smith, one of North Carolina's candidates for the senate, has been stumping the state telling folks that he is the great friend of the working man. One of his full-page advertisements reads:

"I believe in high wage scales for the American working man." What Lawyer Smith has forgotten, however — or at least what he wants the people of North Carolina to forget—is that he actually opposed a 40-cent minimum wage for the working man as late as 1947. Despite the fact that the federal minimum wage now is fixed at 75 cents, Smith informed the North Carolina general assembly that the 40-cent minimum was "harsh, unreasonable and unnecessary."

NOTE — In contrast, candidate Smith last year received a fee of $23,137.77 for liquidating the Madix Asphalt Roofing Co. of Raleigh. Since the job took him only 98 days, he was paid at the rate of $219.28 a day in contrast to the $16 a week which he told the general assembly was too high for North Carolina workmen. While liquidating the firm, incidentally, Smith lived at the beach resort of Morehead City and charged his client 10 cents a mile expense for riding back and forth to the beach.

Soviet Eyes Okinawa

A Soviet plot to force the United States off its Pacific island bases is revealed in recent reports to the joint chiefs of staff.

The clue to Soviet plans is the massing of thousands of Chinese forced laborers to build giant airports within bombing range of China's Fukien province.

Louey and Harry

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson's report penchant for talking off the cuff is getting him in trouble with President Truman—who also talks off the cuff.

The President complained to an old friend the other day, "Louey talks to Bernie Baruch and tells him things he doesn't tell me. I have to learn about them third hand."

Note—Mr. Truman has no love for the elderly Baruch since Baruch didn't aid re-election.

YOUR HEALTH

By George W. Cox,
State Health Officer

There's a lot of punch corked up in that little bottle of cleaning solvent out on the back porch. State Health Officer George W. Cox called them "hazardous, when special precautions are not used."

It seems that solvent vapors are heavier than air, which, means, according to Dr. Cox, that they will collect at floor levels. The danger of using solvent for such household chores as taking spots off the linoleum, or cleaning dirt or grease off the back steps, is that you have to get on your knees to do the job.

And when you're on your knees, you're closer to the accumulation of solvent vapor.

The state health officer proved his whole point with this story:

A man attempted to remove the grease from the underside of his car by spraying it with a spray gun he had brought home from his construction job. He was found dead under the car, suffocated by the vapor of the cleaning agent.

Proper use of cleaning solvent, says the doctor, call for opening all the doors and windows when cleaning floors, the underside of household furniture, or clothing. The idea is to get as much ventilation as possible. A fan blowing on the working area is helpful.

When doing a job of this sort, work for a short time — avoiding inhaling the vapors as much as possible — and then get into the fresh air for a minute or two.

The first symptoms of vapor poisoning are nausea, dizziness, headache and fatigue. When you notice them, get outside as soon as possible, the health official advises.

Chairman of the various centers were Mrs. Robert Koch, Hondo; Mrs. Arnold Balzen, Quihi; Mrs. Henry Weynand, D'Hanis; Mrs. Tom Duncan, Yancey; and Mrs. Lonnie Howard. Two other centers were to be opened soon, at Dunlay and at Rio Medina. 465 farm families had been certified by the AAA committee to participate in the mattress program.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"

Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude — that's even after we make up our minds about it!

Serve Dainty Foods When Entertaining Prospective Brides

IT WON'T BE long now until you're in the midst of entertaining all the girls who will be married in the romantic month of June. If several of your friends are to be entertained, be ready with fresh and tempting ideas for food.

Keep foods dainty and serve them attractively on your prettiest china and tableware. For a luncheon, serve a main dish salad or a lovely casserole. Add to this tiny rolls or muffins, and a seasonal dessert.

Showers may be in the form of luncheons or evening or garden parties. If the latter two, then you'll need only a glamorous dessert and beverage. You may also pass a cool beverage, mints and nuts while the girl opens her presents.

STRAWBERRIES MAKE beautiful desserts for occasions of this type, especially if they're chosen from these:

- *Strawberry Angel Pie (Serves 8-10)
- 4 egg whites
- 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1/16 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 egg yolks
- 1 package sliced or whole fresh frozen strawberries
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 cup whipping cream

Beat egg whites until fluffy, add cream of tartar and salt and beat slightly. Slowly add sugar, a few tablespoons at a time, and continue to beat. Spread mixture into lightly greased or oiled cake or pie pan. Bake in a slow oven, 300° for one to 1 1/4 hours or until meringue is well dried out. Place on cake rack to cool. When almost at room temperature, loosen from sides and bottom of pan and place on serving plate. The top and center of the "pie shell" will crush in to receive the filling. When at room temperature, set aside to chill. While crust is baking, mix egg yolks with juice drained from strawberries that have been put into colander or sieve to thaw and drain. Add sugar and cook in top of double boiler until thick. Stir often while cooking. Beating slightly while cooking will give a fluffy texture. Add lemon juice and chill both the strawberry mixture and the drained strawberries. Assemble pie by spreading shell with a bit of cream that has been whipped. Spread in strawberry filling.

Strawberry Velvet Pie (Makes 1 9-inch pie)

Pastry

- 1 cup sifted enriched flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 tablespoons cold water

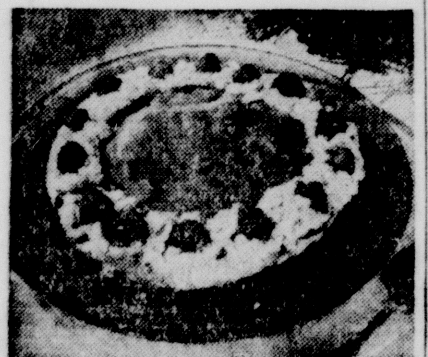

Sift together flour and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Add water.

Mix to dry, crumbly dough. Turn out on lightly floured pastry cloth. Press dough together. Roll out 1/8 inch thick. Line nine-inch pie pan with pastry. Bake in hot oven (450°) eight to twelve minutes.

Strawberry Velvet Filling

- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1 cup milk
- 2 eggs, separated
- 3/4 cup sugar

A crust of light, chewy meringue encloses a creamy velvet-texture filling of strawberries in this Strawberry Angel Pie. It's a perfect dessert for entertaining the bride-to-be.

LYNN SAYS: Avoid Kitchen Slavery By Smart Planning

Have only one dish at a meal which requires more than ordinary preparation. If it's to be a fancy dessert, have a simple main course that can be cooked altogether, preferably in the oven.

When you plan a casserole which requires several ingredients and sauce, have a simple dessert such as fresh or canned fruit with cookies that have been baked in advance.

Dainty chicken and noodle casseroles offer a delightful main dish for luncheon or light supper when you want to entertain a crowd. A salad accompaniment and light dessert are all you really need to complete the menu.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

- *Chicken and Noodles in Casserole
- Asparagus Tip Salad
- Finger Rolls
- *Strawberry Angel Pie
- Beverage
- *Recipe Given

- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups sliced strawberries
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup whipping cream
- 1 tablespoon sugar

Soften gelatin in cold water 10 minutes. Scald milk in top of double boiler. Beat egg yolks. Add sugar and salt. Pour scalded milk over egg yolk mixture, stirring constantly. Return to double boiler and cook until custard coats the spoon, stirring constantly. Remove from hot water. Add softened gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool. Fold in 1 1/2 cups strawberries and vanilla extract. Beat egg whites stiff. Fold in. Pour into baked nine-inch pastry shell. Set in refrigerator to chill about 1 hour. Just before serving, whip cream. Fold in sugar. Arrange whipped cream in 6 individual "nests" and fill each with remaining 1/2 cup berries.

Strawberry Meringue Roll

- 4 egg yolks
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 4 egg whites
- 1/2 cup cake flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder

Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Gradually add 1/4 cup of the sugar and vanilla. Beat egg whites until almost stiff; gradually add remaining sugar; beat very stiff. Fold in egg-yolk mixture, then sifted dry ingredients. Bake in waxed-paper-lined, 10 1/2-by-15-inch pan, in moderate oven (375°) 12 minutes. Turn onto cloth dusted with confectioners' sugar. Remove paper; trim cake edges. Top with waxed paper. Roll quickly, paper inside. Wrap in sugared cloth; cool on cake rack. Unroll. Remove paper; spread with Strawberry Filling. Whip 3/4 cup heavy cream; fold in two tablespoons sugar and one cup sliced strawberries. Roll up. Chill. Frost with Strawberry Meringue. Combine 3/4 cup sliced strawberries, 1/2 cup sugar, one egg white, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Beat with rotary or electric beater until mixture is very stiff, 7 to 10 minutes.

*Chicken and Noodles in Casserole (Serves 5)

- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 quarts boiling water
- 4 ounces medium noodles
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 1 cup chicken stock
- 1 cup milk
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup olives, chopped
- 2 cups cubed cooked chicken

Add one tablespoon salt to actively boiling water. Gradually add noodles and boil until tender (about six minutes). Drain and rinse. While noodles are cooking, melt butter in top of double boiler. Add flour, salt and paprika. Mix to a smooth paste. Gradually add chicken stock and milk, stirring constantly. Cook until slightly thick. Add lemon juice and olives. Combine noodles and chicken in 1 1/2 quart casserole. Pour sauce over. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350°) 45 minutes. Serve hot.

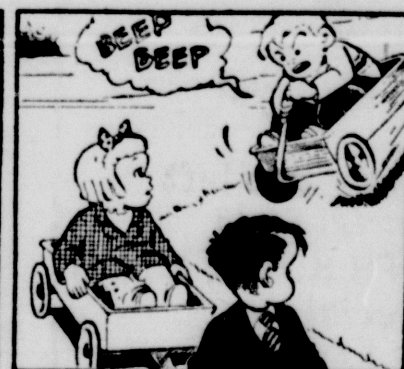

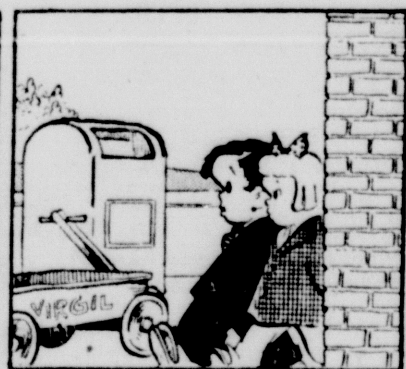

Prepare foods ahead of time whenever possible so that you can feel fresh and rested for meal time. Tomorrow's dessert may be baked with this evening's dinner, for example.

Have a roast at least once a week to save meal preparation. Already cooked meat can be used sliced, heated with gravy, as meat pie and hash.

Arrange equipment for convenient reaching, and learn how to sit while you work so that you can save energy.

TWO MEDINA COUNTY STUDENTS GIVEN AWARDS

Two students from Medina County have received awards for their work on The Daily Texan, student newspaper at the University of Texas.

They are Fred H. Sanner of Devine, who received the gold award; and Jonell Britsch of Hondo, given the bronze award.

THE SECO PHILOSOPHER

J. A. WANTS COUNTY TO ADOPT INTERNATIONAL BANKING WAYS

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm comes up with a strange notion of banking this week, as follows. Dear editor:

I was readin in a paper last night which I picked up off the counter at a Hondo cafe and will return next week if they complain about it that Russia has offered to pay off its lend-lease debt of two billion dollars to the United States provided we'll accept payment at the rate of 2 cents on the dollar.

As I understand it, the United States is gravely considerin this proposition. Now of course it wouldn't take me or you long to give Russia a answer on this, but that ain't what interests me right now.

What interests me is the type of international bankin methods in use today, and what I'd still like to know is why we can't have some of em down here in Medina County?

Say last year I was confronted with a financial emergency, and there ain't no time of the year when I couldn't arrange one, and went to the bank and they loaned me $500. Well, just a long about now say the note comes due. Under the present system we got around here, the bank sends me a brief notice that the note is due and payment is expected.

But national governments don't employ such embarrassin methods.

We send a man all the way to Russia, outfit him in a new suit of clothes, and have him wait around Stalin's office a few days, when he's admitted and hands over a diplomatically-worded note sayin we hope Stalin is in good health and his family is fine and along toward the end, as a sort of after-thought, we beg his pardon for mentioning it but there's a slight matter of two billion dollars past due now for five years. And then Russia, in about two months, gets around to offerin to settle for 2 cents on the dollar.

Now what we need here in Medina County is a similar system. When my note comes due at the bank, I'd like to get some international treatment. If the bank would wait five years before sending a man out here to inquire about my health and casually mention that $500 note, and give me a couple of months to make a counter offer, say even 5 cents on the dollar, I ain't got quite as much nerve as Russia and wouldn't expect no 2-cent deal, I'd feel a lot better about things and I imagine bankin business would increase a thousand per cent. If you hear of anybody around here tryin this method out, let me know right away how they come out.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Light Meters At Garner Park

Garner State Park near Uvalde has been selected for a test of the practicability of night lighting of picnic table areas in Texas State Parks.

A lighting system adaptable for use will be installed in other parks if the Garner State Park test proves successful.

Under the agreement, lighting equipment is installed at the several picnic areas, to be operated on a coin-metered system. The charge for the lighting is 25 cents for a two-hour period, and will enable day picnickers to remain after dark at small expense. Three coins may be deposited at one time to give six hours of continuous operation.

Each unit is enclosed in a heavy steel housing mounted on a concrete pedestal at a convenient height and is attractively finished. A convenience outlet may be used for all household appliances such as radios, irons, fans, toasters, electric razors, or for tent and trailer house lighting. Complete instructions on the panel makes the operation simple and safe; however, each unit is covered by public liability insurance.

Commission Asks Boating Safety

An unusual number of 1950 boating fatalities has prompted safety experts to appeal to fishermen and other aquatic devotees for greater caution.

The executive secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said reports to Austin headquarters indicated that only greater safeguards will avert even more tragedies.

He explained that too many people are fooled by so-called generous seating space in a small boat and that the average 12-foot or 14-foot boat has a full load when it has three adults aboard. Life preservers should be standard equipment. They may come in the form of a buoyant cushion or life jacket. A paddle is indispensable.

Emphasis was made that persons thrown into the water by an overturning boat should stay with the boat and resist the inevitable impulse to try to swim to shore.

The executive secretary said boats should be buoyant enough at all times to lift easily to oncoming waves instead of plunging into them. Watercraft should never be loaded to the point where they lose their "life," becoming top-heavy, loggy and unstable or hard to steer. Improper loading courts disaster as much as overloading. Oftentimes carelessly operated motorboats endanger swimmers. Boats frequently are turned, backed up or started away from docks without regard to the safety of persons in the water. Growth of surf-boarding and surf-skiing has added to the general perils.

Louis Brierot first flew the English Channel in 1909.

Help Asked To Protect Turkeys

Co-operation of Texans in protecting wild turkey hens, their eggs and their brood was solicited today by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. Emphasis was placed on not molesting the big birds in areas recently restocked, particularly heavily populated parts of north central, north-eastern and eastern Texas.

The Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration explained that persons in areas unfamiliar with wild turkeys might innocently cause costly damage. He said the range of house cats and of dogs which suck eggs should be restricted.

Newly-stocked birds were not so evident to the populace before the mating and nesting period because they had been in flocks generally in wooded areas. But when the breeding period begins, the birds scatter widely and are found in fields, open pastures, and meadows.

"Folks noticing the turkeys are naturally curious," said the Assistant Director. "If they will restrain their curiosity during this crucial period, many benefits will accrue. Turkey hens are very sensitive to human contact. They don't have to see persons pecking into their nests and approaching their young. They can scent them. The hens, being wild, oftentimes abandon nests or young in their inherent fear of human beings."

"Touching the eggs is certain to prove disastrous, even though they are left in the nest. Persons placing eggs from 'abandoned' nests under setting hens or under tame turkey hens are just wasting time. If the eggs hatch, the young usually perish from starvation or common poultry ailments to which they are very susceptible, or run away to become the easy prey of predators."

Protect Herds From Blackleg

The danger season for blackleg is here now, and cattle losses may be high unless herds are protected, livestock health authorities warned today.

The disease strikes swiftly, with a high death rate, an American Foundation for Animal Health bulletin explains.

Blackleg is caused by a spore-forming germ which can live for years in the soil. It may enter an animal's body through small cuts and punctures in the skin, or through grazing.

"Suspect blackleg," the bulletin urges, "if young cattle develop a high fever, lose appetite, become lame and show great depression."

"Typical swellings caused by the disease give off a crinkling, tissue-paper feeling if they are touched."

Since the disease is highly infectious among young cattle, and usually fatal, the Foundation urged owners to have a veterinarian check immediately if they suspect a blackleg outbreak in their herds.

"Prompt treatment may save some of the animals," the bulletin says, "although it is usually best to have calves vaccinated at about three months of age if blackleg losses have occurred before in the locality."

Also of great importance, the Foundation adds, is to burn or bury deeply under lime the carcasses of animals which have died. Otherwise, the carcass may be a potent source of infection.

The pony express was established between San Francisco and St. Joseph, Missouri on April 3, 1860.

Reports From Washington

WASHINGTON — When the U. S. Supreme Court granted the Tidelands to the United States, it dealt a stiff blow at the Texas school system. The loss to its economies will be felt even stronger in years to come as the Tidelands become more valuable with the rise in oil and gas exploration.

The Supreme Court justices went four to three in favor of the federal claim. Two of the justices didn't give a decision. This Texas decision was predicated on the California case. In the latter case the Supreme Court awarded such Tidelands off the California coast to the United States.

I believe the court was in error on this. Texas had a unique and much stronger claim than California. Texas was admitted to the Union while it was a Republic. As such, Texas retained all her public lands, including those for three leagues at sea (approximately 10 miles) as set under common law.

When the Supreme court makes a decision like this, it presents other problems — problems like who has jurisdiction over towns located the way Martha's Vineyard is located in Massachusetts. Martha's Vineyard is a principal urban area in that New England state — and it's situated 20 miles out to sea from the coast.

Apparently this is the time to exercise the option it retained when it joined up with the Union. Maybe it's time for Texas to break down into five states, as is Texas' privilege, and send 10 Senators to Washington. With ten Senators, Texas would have almost one-tenth of the Senatorial representation in the country — and then perhaps our Northern Democrats would lend a more attentive ear to Texas' problems.

With Alaska posed for admission to the Union, Texas would no longer be the biggest state in the Union anyway after the northern domain was admitted. Needless to say, Texans would still want to keep the name of Texas. A probable compromise — in the proposed breakdown of Texas into five states — would be to name the five states: East Texas, West Texas, Central Texas, South Texas — and, lest our Northern friends might think we were too obviously bidding for their support, instead of North Texas, we'd call it Upper South Texas.

The Supreme Court's decision has passed the buck on the Tidelands question to the Congress. Now Texas must depend on the Congress to retain its Tidelands. It is probably too late to bring successful action this session — but certainly at the beginning of the next session the Texas delegation will bring concerted action to pass a bill retaining the Tidelands for the state. I am optimistic.

Magazine Seeks Aid In Hunt For Picture

A fabulous story of Dominicker Hart, the Irishman whose brand wrought wit West of the Pecos, is told by Roy Holt in the June issue of the Sheep and Goat Raiser magazine.

His range covered well over 1,000 square miles, he ran over 100,000 sheep, thousands of head of horses and cattle, and lost a fortune trying to corner the Boston Wool Market.

A part of the Roy Bean era, this notorious Texas character was seldom photographed, and a several months search by the Sheep and Goat Raiser failed to secure his picture in any form. Help is being solicited in obtaining some graphic proof of this Pecos legend.

worker, would offset the lower output of the older man.

The department of labor estimates that involuntary retirement of workers at 65 deprives the economy of an increase of $4 billion a year in national production. We would be much better off if the roughly 3.8 million persons who face the harsh rule of "65 and out" were permitted to stay at work.

How SMOOTH can a ride be?

THAT'S a question well worth answering before you settle on your next automobile.

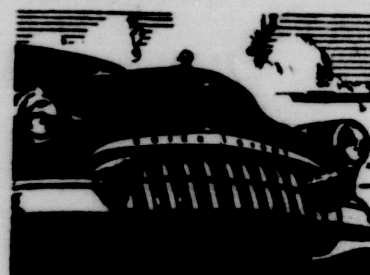

For what fun is there—what thrill—in a car that is prisoner to the city streets, slowed down by roads a Buick is built to take in stride?

So we'd like to show you just how much smoothness your money can buy. How levelly you float over cobbles and ear tracks—over rutty gravel and wavy black-top—in this stunning traveler.

The car will be any Buick you prefer—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You can name the place—pick a spot or a stretch you know so that you can measure Buick's smoothness against your own experience—and we'll promise you a new sensation in riding comfort.

The time can be any time you want to arrange with your Buick dealer—who is ready to

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

show with actual figures that "if you can afford a new car you can afford a Buick."

See him, will you, and treat yourself to some real comfort?

SEVEN POINTS OF THE WONDERFUL BUICK RIDE

1. Buick's smoothness starts with this husky weaverproof frame.
2. A stout torque-tube serves like the keel of a battleship to steady the whole car.
3. Gentle coil springs, the softest type men know, let each wheel "step over" bumps individually, just as only the front wheels do on most other cars.

4. Low-pressure tires, mounted on Buick's own Safety-Ride rims, give firm traction, soft cushioning, less "head-over" on curves.
5. Quick-action shock absorbers snub after-bounce promptly when you hit a bad bump.
6. Even the special way the engine is mounted betters the ride by preventing vibration build-up.
7. Dynaflo Drive* adds a crowning touch of silky smoothness by eliminating the check and jerk of gearshifting and by filtering the engine's thrust through a cushion of oil.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-262 engine in SUPER models.) NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights. WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back. TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius. EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles. SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube. WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.
